

Nikolaos Dalpis (dalpispn@gmail.com) graduated of the Agricultural Department of the GEOTECHNICAL SCHOOL OF THE ARISTOTLE UNIVERSITY OF THESSALONIKI 1988 and has CERTIFICATE IN SALES MANAGEMENT of CIM COLLEGE OF MARKETING (<https://www.cim.co.uk/>) and the HELLENIC MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION (<http://www.eede.gr>) 1995.

He participated with viticulture speeches in the 1st INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM OF VINE 2003, 2nd INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM OF VINE 2006, 3rd INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM OF VINEYARD 2013 in Santorini and in the 4th INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM OF VINE 2017 on "Mediterranean Vineyard and Climate Change".

He is member of CIESCO since 2019.

He participated in a RESEARCH TEAM of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki on research on DISEASES OF AMPELOS IN CENTRAL MACEDONIA AND ESPECIALLY IN THE AREA OF PORTO CARRAS IN ZONE V.Q.R.P.D. The results of this research that lasted 2 years are referred to a DIPLOMA THESIS.

In recent years he is writing articles in many agricultural journals with emphasis on viticulture issues.

From August 1996 until today he is working at VITRO S.A. (www.vitrohellas.gr) as AN AGRONOMIST RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF AMPELOS IN GREECE, Cyprus and Turkey, as areas of responsibility of V.C.R (Vivai Cooperativi Rauscedo) (<https://www.vivairauscedo.com/>).